MARYLAND'S NEXT TROUTMAN DIES AS GOVERNOR IN VISIT RESULT OF BULLET TO THE PRESIDENT

With Congressman Parran, Arthur Carroll Held by Cor-Asks Selection of Hanna as Collector.

Governor-elect Phillips Lee Gouldsbrough, Congressman Thomas Parran Republican State chairman John B. Hanna, and Dr. Brice W. Goldsborough with the President this morning.

The Governor-elect, the Congressma and Dr. Goldsborough came to Washington to recommend the appointment of Mr. Hanna as Collector of Internal Revenue for Maryland, and the entire narty recommended the transfer of Min-ister John W. Garrett from Venezuela

ister John W. Garrett 11011 to Argentina.

President Taft greeted the visitors heartily and warmly congratulated Mr. Goldsborough upon his victory. He assured the Governor-elect that the country had had its eyes on his fight, and that in it the Republican party had found much to congratulate itself upon for the splendid victory which Mr. for the splendid victory Goldsborough had led.

Taft Gives Promise.

The President promised to give the recommendations in favor of Mr. Hanna and Minister Garrett the fullest consideration He has known the State chairman personally for years, and holds him in the highest esteem. He also understands that if he would strengthen the party in Maryland, and follow up the achievement of the rast election, he would do well to reward the leaders of that campaign as much as is practicable. During the interview with the President concerning the collectorship va-cancy, Mr. Hanna withdrew from it. He left the whole matter in the hands of his friends, the governor-elect and Coffgressman Parran. They pressed the matter vigorously, and while they re-citived no promise from the President of chived no promise from the President of the appointment, they are encouraged to believe it will be made.

The only opposition to Mr. Hanna has come from Delaware, which always contests the naming of a Marylander for this position. Delaware, as well as the District of Columbia, is a part of the revenue district, and, some of the Republican leaders in that State want the President to name former United States Senator Ball for the vacancy. Senator Ball for the vacancy.

Favorable to Hanna,

So, far, however, the Delaware politicians have made no representations on the subject other than to request the President to give them a hearing before he decides upon the appointment. This the Chief Executive will do. It can be stated emphatically, however, that it seems now that it will, Mr. Hanna will seems now that it will, Mr. Hanna will be the chief Executive Will do. It can be stated emphatically however, that it seems now that it will, Mr. Hanna will be the chief the chief that it will be the ch visitors today told the President that the party in Maryland was a unit for Hanna and that National Commit-teeman William P. Jackson and Collecwho arrived on the steamship Mariposa, from Tahiti, was subjected to what te called "Ze great humiliation" when informed by the immigration service that she would have to be taken to Angel island and detained until the identity of the two-months-old baby she had brought with her was estab lished by a special board.

The countess came with thirty-five trunks and three servants, bound for New York and Paris. She says the child is the son of a French naval officer and that she is taking the little one to its father's people in Paris. Countess Rougemont was formerly the wife of H. W. Senator Jeff Davis Starts His Campaign

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 15.—United States Senator Jeff Davis went to White county today to deliver the opening speech in his campaign for re-election. Mis successor will be chosen by the legislature to be elected next year and an interesting contest is in prospect.

The situation has been somewhat simplified by the announcement of Governor Donaghey that he would be that will appeal to the situation of the situation of the situation has been somewhat simplified by the announcement of Governor Donaghey that he would be that will appeal to the situation of the s plified by the announcement of Governor Donaghey that he would be a candidate for renomination. For a long time doubt existed in the minds of the p liticians as to whether the governor would try for another term or become a candidate for Senator. His decision in the matter has left the Senatorial contest a straight race between Senator Jeff Davis and former Congressman Stephen Brundige, jr., who is expected to be his only opponent.

Mr. Brundige represented the Second district in Congress for ten years and has a strong following throughout the State.

Will on Slip of Paper Admitted to Probate

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 15 .-Holding that a will written on a slip of paper, so long as it is properly wit nessed and expresses the wish of the testator, is as good as a will drawn by a lawyer, Surrogate Hopkins admitted to probate the will of Miss Lucy 8. Tremper, who died in the Thompson Hospital, Rhinebeck, on October 2.

Miss Tremper had a premonition that an operation for appendicitis would not be a success and told Dr. James F. Goodell she wished to make her will.

oner for Investigation. Mother at Bedside.

Louis Troutman, nineteen years old, of Capital Heights, Md., who was shot in the head last evening with a 32caliber revolver in the hands of Arthur Carroll, a seventeen-year-old colored boy, died this morning in the Emergency Hospital,

While the police believe the shooting was an accident, Coroner Nevitt will hold an inquest at the morgue tomorrow. Carroll is held at the Ninth precinct station or a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Story of the Shooting.

Troutman was waiting at the electric railway station at Sixty-first and C streets northeast, for his mother, Mrs. Virginia Troutman, who is employed as chairwoman in one of the departments. Carroll entered the station and produced carroll entered the station and produced an old revolver he had found several days before, and, pointing it at the floor, snapped the trigger several times. The cartridge failed to explode. Carroll says Troutman told him to let him see what was the matter with the pistol, and as he raised the weapon it went off, the bullet entering Troutman's forehead. Mrs. Troutman arrived itset a few minutes after the shooting.

just a few minutes after the shooting. The wounded youth was taken to the hospial, and two hours later Carroll was arrested at his home.

"In cases of this kind," said Coroner Nevitt, "I feel the testimony should be heard by a jury. The shooting itself was undoubtedly an accident, as I do not believe anything was further from Carrost's thoughts than shooting the varies with the same with th the young white man. Question for Jury.

"Still, in the 'gun play' cases there is always a suggestion of 'criminal negligence' or 'criminal carelessness,' and it is for a coroner's jury to say what shail be done.'

Troutman's father is blind and unable to work, and the young man had teen in the habit of waiting at the station for his mother, when she came home for his mother, when she came home from work. Had she arrived a few minutes earlier she would have wit-nessed the tragedy. Mrs. Troutman was at the bedside when her son died.
